

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS22465

This is one of a series of bills that the Supreme Court has recommended in its annual report to the Governor concerning defects or omissions in the laws, as required under article V, section 25 of the Idaho Constitution. In 2013 the Legislature enacted HB 256, which made certain helpful changes to the Child Protective Act. Unfortunately, the bill contained an erroneous statutory reference. In Idaho Code §16-1622(2)(a), in describing the information that is required in a permanency plan, the statute referred to Idaho Code §16-1621(3)(b) and (c). The reference should have been to Idaho Code § 16-1621(3)(c) and (d). This error should be corrected to avoid any confusion as to the information to be included in permanency plans.

FISCAL NOTE

This bill would have no impact on the general fund.
